Kenosha County Fair Off to Good Start; Big Crowd Expected

Fine Agricultural Exhibits
Despite Late Growing Season Shown

The 37th annual Kenosha County Fair swung open its gates today (August 8) inviting eager fairgoers to the best in what has always been an outstanding event as fairs go—in the state of Wisconsin.

After this afternoon's free horse show for children, the youngsters are looking forward to Friday morning's big parade and the special Friday afternoon kiddies' matinee when all rides and shows will be less for children between the hours of 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

On Saturday at 10:30 a. m. the children's parade on the fair grounds will bring out budding Thespians and clowns in original costumes and decorated vehicles, calculated to complicate the judges' lives.

For the young and the young in heart, Sunday's balloon ascension from the football field will be a must. Captain Eddie Allen parachutes from his hot air balloon following the afternoon rodeo.

The rodeo itself, a return engagement of the Bar M, by popular request, is filled with thrills and excitement and authentic western feeling, dear to the hearts of miniature cowboys and cowgirls. The skill and horsemanship of the rodeo appeal to adults as well.

Saturday evening will feature the crowning of the Fair Queen from among the court of five girls who will be selected by the judges from among the 10 entries on Friday night.

Four free midway acts each afternoon and evening will bring the talented vaudeville performers, Linton, the Tramp on the Rope, "The Three Eddies," comedians on Trampoline, and Ruby and her Canines, an exciting animal attraction, and "The Flying Zucchini."

The displays of handwork of those in agriculture, industry and business are exhibited all over the Kenosha County Fair grounds which have been groomed for the four days—August 8-11. Roads have been oiled to keep dust at a minimum and the grounds have been thoroughly fogged for flies and mosquitoes.

Fair patrons who fail to explore the educational exhibits are losing out on the best of the fair. County livestock breeders own some of the most outstanding animals in the state and nation. In the flower show, art classes and women's department many phases of the life of the county are represented.

In spite of a late growing season, the 4-H display this year is ahead of its usual fine standard. Climaxing the many features of the Junior Fair will be the 4-H Club awards for dairy and beef, herdsman'ship, presented by Murphy Products, Burlington and the Kenosha Mfg. Association, Sunday evening, and the Dress Revue also Sunday evening.

Among the Lake County exhibitors are Tom DeMeyer, Grayslake; William Duncan, Lake Villa; Eva Meister, Valley Forge, Lake Villa; M. F. Norris, Deerfield, Ill.; Bill Rosing, Round Lake; Herbert Holst, Prairie View; and Kay McNeill, R. F. D. 2, Waukegan.

Highway Use Tax on Trucks Due August 31

District Director of Internal Revenue H. Alan Long today reminded owners of registered highway motor vehicles who are liable for the Highway Use Tax that Form 2290, "Federal Use Tax Return on Highway Motor Vehicles," for the tax year beginning July 1, 1957 will be due on or before August 31, 1957.

The provisions of the Highway Revenue Act of 1956 require Form 2290 to be filed for all taxable vehicles in use during July of each tax year. An additional Form 2290 must be filed for each month in which additional vehicles are put in use. These returns, which are filed with the District Director of Internal Revenue, are due on or before the last day of the month following the month in which the vehicle is first used. The tax must be paid when the return is filed.

The tax applies to the use of highway motor vehicles having a taxable gross weight of more than 26,000 pounds. The taxable gross weight of trucks and truck-trailers is determined according to the empty weight and the number of axles. The tax applies to the use of single-unit trucks with empty weight of 13,000 pounds or more, and truck-trailers with empty weight of 5,500 pounds or more.

Despite Delay In Paying Bills, Village Board Transacted Much Business Tuesday Evening

Trustees Must Make Own Decision on New Dog License Ordinance

A village board member cannot pass the buck to the people. Like a member of congress he must take the responsibility of making decisions.

This was announced by Village Atty. E. C. Jacobs when Trustee Ernest H. Glenn asked whether a referendum on the dog license matter could be held.

"You can send out questionnaires at your own expense to get public opinion, but there is no law that delegates the responsibility to the people. You are elected for the very purpose of making the decisions," Atty. Jacobs explained.

Mayor Murrill Cunningham had just appointed a committee to take the dog license ordinance from the table where it was placed last month and change it to make it acceptable to the trustees who think it is too severe.

Now the trustees know their duty, disliked as it may be.

Antioch Golfers Fifth In National Tournament At Tam O'Shanter Link

Fred Hawkins and Mary Tully Give Outstanding Performances

Fred Hawkins, Antioch's native professional golf star, today was in close competition in the game's richest event—the $101,200 World Championship at the Tam O'Shanter course near Chicago, after having finished in a tie with three others for fifth place in the National tournament.

His winnings last week were $1,150 with a score of 281 in rounds of 74-70-68-69.

An Antioch area amateur, Mary Tully, finished fifth in the women's amateur.

Although Roberto de Vincenzo of Mexico City won the All-American pro title with a score of 273—15 under par—and the $3,500 prize for first place, Gene Littler was the most talked of player when he tied the course record of 63 and came very near beating it. Had he made his 62 score he would have won $10,000. As it was he shot a total of 277.

Sam Snead was third with 278, Paul Horney fourth with 279, and Hawkins, Bob Roseburg, Art Wall, Jr., and Don Fensterwald tied for fifth with 281.

Mayor Murrill Cunningham's attempts to operate the village board meeting in an efficient manner received a slight setback Tuesday evening when it was necessary to take 20 minutes for the signing of bills by the finance committee before they could be paid.

Perturbed at this Cunningham gave instructions that the bills should be okayed or rejected by the departments and the nature of them explained to the finance committee in plenty of time before the meeting so that the committee would not be delayed getting information about the bills.

The trustees nearly blew up when they found that one bill from the engineer called for the payment of $50 a day to an inspector on the recent street improvements. That part of the bill from W. A. Rakow and Sons was protested, but the trustees agreed to approve payment of $16,238.41 motor fuel tax money on Peter Baker and Son's bill for $18,018.70 for the paving of Broadway and Orchard sts.

Vote Radio Operator Pay
The board voted Mrs. Walter I. Scott $80 a month for monitoring the police radio, a job she has been doing without pay for a long time.

At the last meeting the board upped Chief Scott's pay to $5,000 a year for his police services, and at the same time increased the pay of Raymond Harr to $325 a month, Jimmie Quadenfeld to $312, and C. L. Smith to $333.33.

Clerk Clarence Shultis told the board that a survey shows licenses issued to 576 cars and Mayor Cunningham speculated that there are at least a hundred more that are not yet licensed.

"We'll get them all before the year is up," said Cunningham.

To Remodel Village Hall
Trustee Herman Holbek was authorized to put in a partition to the clerk's office so that a hallway from the side door to the office of the police chief will be established (continued on page 12)

Art Exhibit Attracts Many Adults, Children

Jackie Horton, a first prize winner at the Lake county fair art exhibit, again topped top honors with her farm scene in oils in the Brush and Palette club's second annual art show held in the Ford garage last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Jackie's picture was chosen from among 54 entries for which the total number of adult votes cast was 1154. Jackie is president of the club.

Second, third, and fourth prizes went to Kay Loftus of Venetian Village. Her portrait of "Little One" (baby) done in pastels received the second award, and "The Monk" in oils brought the third prize. Fourth place recognition went to her picture done in oils entitled "The Carpenter."

From the 294 children's votes cast, "The Dogs," an oil by Jackie Horton, received the first award. Dr. James Kopriva's picture in oils, "Lincoln," and "Susan" also in oils by Clara Gilday were tied for second place. Third award went to Virginia Francisco's "The Boxer" and Jackie Horton's "Farm Scene" rated fourth with the children.

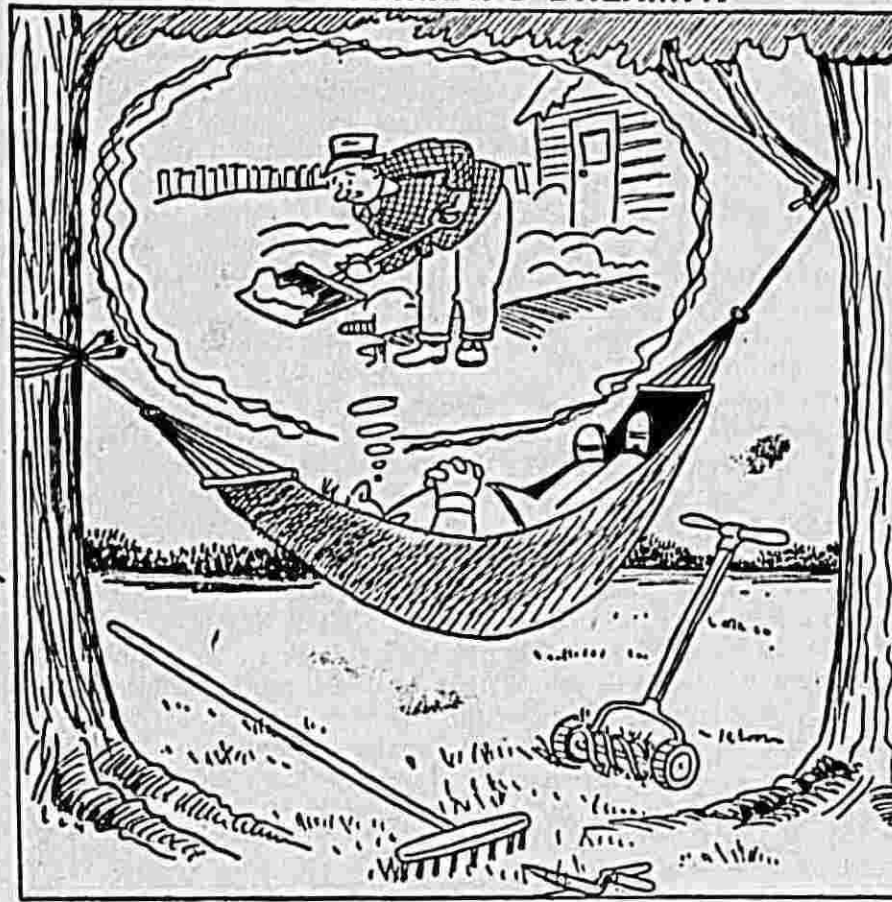

The children's interest in the display so pleased the club members that they are now considering operating art classes for the youngsters during future summers.

Motor is Prize for Bluegill

Paula Carpenter, 2 1/2, and her mother, Mrs. Phyllis Carpenter, 2178 W. Tushy Ave., Chicago, have the aid of Ed Clements of Petite Lake Resort in holding the three-fourth pound bluegill. Mrs. Carpenter's catch which bore a tag calling for a 1957 Johnson Outdoors motor as a prize from the State Bank of Antioch. Jack Fields, (right) Vice president of the bank made the presentation of the motor at the bank where the picture was taken.

MID-SUMMER'S DREAM...

Antioch Police Force to Be Strengthened By Salaried Rather Than Voluntary Staff

At a meeting of the police committee of the Antioch Village Board Herman Holbek, chairman of the committee, announced plans to improve Antioch's police force.

Plans are to hire another man who will be a permanent member of the regular police.

The auxiliary police will comprise six men who will be called upon to serve whenever they are needed. While on duty they will have the same authority as members of the regular police and will be fully insured. They will also be paid an hourly wage for the time served on active duty.

The car that has been used by the auxiliary police will be repaired and re-lettered and will serve as a second squad car.

Police Chief Scott will have full authority over the new police force and will be responsible for hiring the new officers. Names of the new members will be announced.

"Money has been appropriated for these improvements and also for new uniforms for the entire force by the Village Board," Holbek said.

At the close of the meeting Holbek's committee praised Chief Walter Scott and Officer Cecil Smith for the splendid work they have done.

Lake Villa Man Dies In Auto Accident

Alfred H. Sherbahn, 61, of R.F.D. 3, Lake Villa, was killed early yesterday when he apparently fell asleep and the car he was driving ran off the highway into a tree on Rte. 45 a half mile north of Millburn.

Sherbahn was going south toward home at 2 a. m. when the car ran off the road at the entrance to the Hobby Hill Farm and struck the tree so hard the auto was demolished.

The body was taken to a Chicago mortuary for the funeral service.

Mrs. Lillian Stuart Buried in Chicago

Mrs. Lillian Stuart, 53, of Cross Lake, Antioch, died Monday at Condel Memorial hospital, Libertyville.

The body was taken to Chicago, where funeral services were held at 2 p. m. today at the Marshall Funeral home, 4817 Chicago ave. Burial was in Oakridge cemetery.

Mrs. Stuart is survived by her husband, Lloyd, and three brothers, Harry, Arthur, and Walter Miller, all of Chicago.

H-T Specialties Gets Two Lots From Village

The H and T Specialties Co. will be granted two lots in Sequoit Acres by the village board for construction of a warehouse, later to be used as a factory building.

In approving the gift the trustees left for later discussion an option on a third lot which the industry would utilize later.

The local industry would erect a building of 15,000 square feet at the start and enlarge it later, the board was told.

Beautify Recreation Area
The Antioch Woman's club recently was given permission by the village board to beautify the recreation area at the rear of the Scout House through the use of flowers.

Village Water Pumping Sets Record in July

An all time record in the amount of water pumped by the village system was recorded in July, Charles P. Mapletorpe, sewer and water superintendent informed the village board.

During the month 8,272,000 gallons were pumped with the record day being 366,000 gallons on July 7. At the same time the sewage treatment plant took care of 6,220,000 gallons.

Supt. Mapletorpe said that a field engineer from the State Sanitary Water Board inspected the plant and suggested that the village change the sand filter after a year's usage and that in the future a change to BOD testing be made.

The trustees will start preliminary study to install a new water main to Oakwood Knolls, ascertaining whether a bond issue could be approved. The estimated cost is $30,000.

Cool Weather Dips Into Antioch Area; July Was Temperate

Cool weather that gave a hint of the autumn that isn't too far away, dipped in on Antioch during the past week.

A low of 51 degrees was recorded Monday which was the coldest since back in early June.

July, according to Cooperative Weather Observer Roy Kufalk had a high of 93 which may become top for the summer. That was on the 20th and four days later on the 24th a low of 53 degrees was recorded.

The total rainfall for July was 3.5 inches. A total of 1.36 inches fell on July 12. Other substantial rains for the month were eight-tenths inch on the 21st and six-tenths inch on the 22nd.

The recordings for this month so far are:

	High	Low	Rainfall

August 2	87	67	.22
August 3	85	69	.07
August 4	77	58	None

Enrollment Increases in Antioch Twp. High School Make More Tax Revenue Necessary Says Board

Student enrollment increases have caused an increase in costs of instruction services, the Antioch Township High School Board of Education stated in support of the request for increases in the educational and building tax rates at a referendum set for Sept. 7.

The last tax referendum passed by the district was in March, 1947. At that time the school had an enrollment of only 275. With the increase of enrollment the costs have gone up correspondingly.

This year the enrollment was 545. Future projection of enrollment indicated the enrollment next year will be 682, and the year following, 689. In 1959-60 the school will have 721 students, in 1960-61, 719; 1961-62, 739; and 1962-63, 778.

The enrollment figures listed are from a 1956 study, and based only upon children enrolled in the elementary schools supplying pupils to the high school. Residential subdivision development can change quickly the future enrollment. The present figures are conservative.

The enrollment factor has caused

Antioch to Get Zoning Problem Before End of Year Cunningham Says

Several Protest Erection of New Apartment Building On Main Street

Zoning may be up for settlement in Antioch before the end of the year. President Murrill Cunningham told the Village Board Tuesday evening that he would seek a zoning of the village.

His announcement came following a protest made by some residents of Main street on the proposal of John Dupre to erect an apartment house there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kaufmann, John Lippert and Mrs. Frank Pechousek told board members they had signed the petition recently addressed to the board opposing the project and said they didn't know that reasons were necessary.

"It's perfectly obvious," said Mr. Kaufmann, "that the building with its apparent construction (He cited figures) would be detrimental within a short time to the surrounding property."

Trustee Blackman told them that some day the area would be more valuable for business than for residence.

Kaufmann said he didn't think business would go in that direction because of the church, school, and park, and said that he thought it would go west on Lake street.

It was at this point that Mayor Cunningham announced that the matter of zoning for Antioch would be taken up this year.

"I'm glad it will," said Kaufmann. "I was against zoning before when they proposed heavy industry, but some kind of zoning has got to be done."

Zoning was attempted in Antioch nearly 10 years ago during the regime of Mayor George Bartlett, but was blocked by those who were opposed to the industrial zoning area.

400 See Exhibition Of Swimming, Diving, And Life Saving Skill

The swimming, diving, and life saving abilities of 60 of the 450 swimming pupils ranging from the beginners to the advanced class were demonstrated to an audience of about 400 persons at the Aqua Center water show Sunday afternoon. Kenneth Smouse, assistant pool manager, narrated the show.

Highlighting the show was a demonstration showing the life preserving values of an overturned or swamped craft given by Robert Montour, water safety director for the Lake County Chapter of the American Red Cross. He showed how the buoyancy of his swamped metal canoe was able to support a dozen pupils and testified that ten more could find succor in this device if necessary.

Mike Mortensen's feat of diving into the water with clothing on, removing his trousers, tying the legs into knots, and inflating them into a life preserved added much interest.

Entertainment of a lighter vein was provided by diving clowns, Charles Bruhn and Dan Seyfarth also.

Gene Prange is home after spending 10 days in St. Therese hospital after undergoing surgery. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Prange of Millburn rd.

Destroying the Irreplaceable

About 150 years ago, John James Audubon, the painter of the monumental "Birds of America," estimated that he saw two billion passenger pigeons at one time. They darkened the sky and whitened the earth as they passed. The last passenger pigeon died in a mid-western zoo early in this century, and the species is now extinct.

Less than one century ago, buffalo roamed the Western plains in vast herds. Now only a comparative handful are left.

The giant whooping crane was once known in great numbers. Now only about 30 have been counted in the Florida sanctuary to which they migrate, and there is grave fear that this species may soon go the way of the passenger pigeon.

The tragedy is that we can destroy wildlife resources—destroy them relatively quickly. But we can bring them back from the brink of destruction only with the greatest difficulty—and often we cannot bring them back at all.

It is a rare American who has no stake and no interest in the out-of-doors and its creatures. In a recent year something like 14 million fishing licenses were sold. Many millions go hunting. Untold numbers go to the streams, the mountains, the seashores and the forests for recreation and restoration of the spirit. Is it not the part of the most elementary wisdom—selfish wisdom—for everyone to help conserve these resources to the limit of his ability?

Carelessness, ignorance, and exploitation are enemies we must fight. Fire, stream pollution, game hogs, the litterbugs who leave trails of trash and filth—these menace the existence of the irreplaceable. Don't be one of them.

Grass Roots Opinion

LIBERAL, KANSAS, SOUTHWEST DAILY TIME: "Vice President Nixon believes that last year's uprisings in Poland and Hungary were the beginning of the end of Communist empire. Would that he is right."

SAC CITY, IOWA, SUN: "We talk about federal aid and we seem to believe that the government can hand out grants without reservation, to any group that requests it. We seem to fail to realize that before the government can provide aid to the hundreds and hundreds of groups who are asking for it, that the money must be forthcoming from someone, and that someone is Mr. Average Taxpayer."

FORT HURON, MICH., TIMES-HERALD: "Every year, tons and tons of government documents which have no value as news, public information or in any other way come into newspaper offices all over the Nation—and most of it is thrown into the wastebasket after it has been scanned by the addressee.

"It must cost the Post Office Department millions of dollars to carry this torrent of useless mail matter over the Nation."

MILLER, S. D., PRESS: "Peddlers . . . don't have a thing to sell that you can't buy from a reliable merchant, who stands behind every product he sells, and if you aren't satisfied, you at least know where to direct your complaint."

LONDON, O., PRESS: "More and more is being heard about the field of 'public relations.' Put simply, public relations is just good-will on a business basis. Most everyone knows that good-will is perhaps the most important asset in any business."

SANTA PAULA, CALIF., DAILY CHRONICLE: "If the trend since 1929 were to continue for another 50 years, about 99 per cent of our economy would be socialized and only one person out of 100 would be privately employed. . . . We now spend one-third of our working days each year working for the government. We are one-third socialized."

Grass Roots Opinion

ANCHORAGE, ALASKA, DAILY NEWS: "Who will be next? Whose life must ebb away because of this high speed nonsense? Fifty miles an hour will get you there—alive! You can save time—to the graveyard—at 60, 70, 80 or 90!"

HEBRONVILLE, TEXAS, ENTERPRISE: "Every industrialist in the United States—in fact, every employer—should hear this: . . . If Thomas A. Edison and the Wright brothers were twenty years old today, they would have great difficulty in finding technical positions worthy of their talents."

"This is the view of Carl G. Sontheimer, an executive of a leading electronic research and development laboratory, who believes that much of the country's inventive talent is being wasted, ignored and overlooked through the frantic efforts of industrialists to latch onto college-trained engineers—regardless of their creative abilities."

SCRANTON, IOWA, JOURNAL: "Democrat Thurman made the telling point that the USA had nowhere to get the dough for building school houses but from the States—and he wasn't proved wrong when he said 40 per cent of the collection would rub off in Washington and never get into brick and mortar."

JEFFERSONTOWN, KY., JERRERSONIAN: "The 400 independent light and power companies in the United States supply about 80 per cent of all the electric customers, and seem to be doing a reasonably good job."

"With only 6 per cent of the world's population, our country is now using 41 per cent of the world's electric power. . . ."

"And what do these 400 privately owned companies contribute annually to the support of government? Almost 24 cents in taxes out of every dollar in revenue. Last year their total tax bill was $1,790,000,000. Government power projects, by contrast, pay little or nothing in taxes."

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McCarthy and family have returned from a visit with relatives in Galena, Ill.

The next regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be Tuesday, Aug. 13 at 8 p. m. at the village hall.

FORD$ COST LESS$ PER MILE!

Fords cost less to buy!

No doubt about it! Model for model, Ford cars are the lowest priced* of the low-price three. And don't be fooled by those "low prices" now being quoted for some "stripped down" models in the medium-price field. Remember, a '57 Ford equipped the way most people want a car today—with automatic transmission, heater and radio—costs hundreds of dollars less than these medium-priced cars, similarly equipped.*

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices

Fords cost less to run!

In the only nationally recognized test of gasoline economy, the 1957 Mobilgas Economy Run, a Ford Six delivered more miles per gallon than any other car entered! This, remember, was no "private test" conducted for the benefit of a single manufacturer. This was grueling competition between 12 different makes of cars . . . supervised by the United States Auto Club. And when the test was over, Ford led all other cars in the thing you want most—actual miles per gallon!

Fords cost less to trade!

Latest official auction sale figures on used cars show clearly that the new kind of Ford commands a higher price than either of its two low-priced competitors. The men who bid at these auctions are professional buyers—men whose very livelihood depends upon their expert knowledge of cars. They pay more for used Fords because they know that Fords hold up in value. Like thousands of Ford owners from coast to coast, they have discovered that Ford is worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it, too!

Tours for Children Started at Museum Of Science-Industry

The Chicago Museum of Science and Industry has inaugurated a new program of tours especially designed for children in the pre-teen age group. These tours, which will be continued throughout the summer vacation period, are a reflection of the constantly increasing attendance at the Museum by family parties with large numbers of young children.

At the same time, new "bird's eye" tours will be introduced for special adult groups whose visits at the Museum are restricted in time. Among such visitors are many of the out-of-town residents participating in the conventions and trade shows staged in Chicago.

The children's tours will originate at the Museum's main information desk at 10:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. each Monday through Friday. Conducted by a Museum demonstrator, who taught first grade for six years, these tours will last about one hour. Children will be given every opportunity to ask questions as they pass each exhibit.

Museum exhibits which chiefly delight the young visitors are the Colleen Moore Doll House and the Louise Gardner doll collection, the Paul Bunyan house, the Rubber exhibit where the children can ride on a moving rubber sidewalk and make their own rubber balls, the Food for Life exhibit where baby chicks can be watched as they actually hatch out of their shells, and the television and telephone exhibits where the children can see themselves on TV and hear their own voices.

The children's tours will be in harmony with the adult tours offered at the Museum. The adult "bird's eye" tours will be offered at 11 o'clock every morning and on the hour every afternoon, Monday through Friday. Parents may take these tours while their children go on their own special tours.

In addition, arrangements can now be made by groups who require explanations in their own languages for tours with demonstrators speaking French, German and Lithuanian.

All of the Museum tours are free. Admission to the Museum is also free at all times.

According to Senator Byrd, this country's total debt—of the federal government, the states and local government, corporations and individuals—is $525 billion. That represents an increase of $200 billion—one-third in four years.

University of Illinois Food Market Survey

CHICAGO—Spot bargains are found in all departments of Chicago-area retail food outlets this week, but poultry continues to hold its pre-eminent position as the only clear-cut major-item value in terms of general abundance and low price.

Chicken and turkey, according to the University of Illinois consumer service, are more than adequately supplied in metropolitan stores with new production continuing to swell record-high storage stocks, to present a good long-term picture for poultry meats. Abundance and lower prices earn the U. of I.'s weekly market value nod for fryers, turkey and stewing hens, in that order, without a serious contender from other major meats. Eggs, too, halted their upward price climb—unexpectedly—to remain at current levels at least for the time being.

In the spot-value picture, the U. of I. suggests these candidates for food departments for the week ending August 10:

Red meats—Hamburger, round steaks, rib lamb chops.
Fresh Vegetables—Sweetcorn, tomatoes, cabbage, celery.

Fresh Fruits—Grapes, watermelon, nectarines.

Frozen Foods—Peas, lemonade, orange concentrate.

Groceries—Peaches, corn, salad dressings.

Dairy—Eggs, cheddar cheese, fluid milk.

Red meats hold the higher price levels reached two weeks ago despite sharply increased costs of cattle and hogs, which suggests even higher price tags to come. An exception, hamburger, with prices declining in enough stores to warrant a spot-value rating, follows indications of lower wholesale for boneless beef to open up additional values.

Locally produced sweetcorn and cabbage are major exceptions in the vegetable patch, earning the bottom of the price barrel rating with good quality. Tomatoes are expected to be in better supply to qualify for a spot value rung of the ladder. Cantaloupe lost its top-rated value position this week on a rising market of shorter supply, but are expected to improve with replacements that are near at hand. New crop apples are reported spotty in quality.

New-pack peas and double storage stocks (over last year) of peaches are the natural grocery and frozen food value selections from the grocery departments. Add salad toppings, too, on a carry over from the recently reported lower prices of vegetable fats and oils.

In general summation, one marketing specialist suggests that if homemakers "go fishing" for values in exactly the same places they fished last week, the "big ones" will still be there—for the market isn't moving in a great hurry in any direction these days.

SUPPORT FOR THE SADLAK BILL (H.R. 6452)

Public response to the Sadlak bill (H. R. 6452) for reducing federal income taxes can be accurately described as overwhelmingly favorable.

This measure would cut the maximum income tax rate from its present 91 per cent to 42 per cent over a five year period. That period could be extended to nine years if necessary to avoid unbalanced budgets and deficit financing. Taxes in all income brackets would be reduced by substantial amounts, and none would be increased. The government would still get all the revenue it legitimately needs—because, according to Representative Sadlak's carefully documented computations, increased tax revenue from expanding and stimulated employment and economic activity would more than offset the losses from rate reductions.

Hundreds of organizations in every part of the nation—civic clubs, chambers of commerce, commercial groups, educational institutions, etc., etc.—have gone on record in favor of the Sadlak bill. The list grows steadily.

Mr. Sadlak himself has said that his proposal "is primarily designed to moderate the tax impact on individuals and on small and growing business, and to eliminate the tax barrier to starting new businesses." It is an obvious fact that present tax laws and rates work a greater hardship on the small business, with its limited assets, than on the long established big business with its greater assets. These laws, in other words, stand in the way of growth and success—and, therefore, deprive government of increased tax revenue that would follow growth and success.

The next step is up to Congress.

Antioch Man Chairman Boccie Ball Tourney At Illinois State Fair

Louis A. Buffetti, retired Chicago mail carrier, residing northeast of the village, has been made chairman of the committee promoting the State Boccie Ball Tournament at the Illinois State Fair Sunday, Aug. 18.

Originated at the 1939 Illinois State Fair by the Americans of Italian Descent, Inc., the boccie ball contests over the years have attracted large crowds. Cash prizes totaling $500 will be offered. Two-man teams of both men and women participate, women competing against women and men against men.

Boccie ball was played originally by the Trojans and later by the Greeks and Romans. The game consists of two teams with two players per team and is played with a Boccie or Pallino ball two inches in diameter and eight Boccie balls made of hard wood approximately 3 1/2 inches in diameter. The game is to place the larger balls of boccie nearest the boccino, thrown at the start from a distance of not less than 60 nor more than 90 feet. Points are given and the one making 12 points first wins the game.

Application for registration for participation giving the captain's name, the other member's name, and the address of both together with $2.50 as the registration fee may be sent to William A. Oldani, Supt., 1940 S. Fifth St., Springfield, Ill.

Still Must Publish Report

Because the State Legislature failed to repeal the law enacted at Springfield two years ago making publication of school treasurers' report mandatory, the treasurers again are having to publish the legal notice before the Oct. 1 deadline.

"The state law was not repealed," said Supt. W. C. Petty, "and the publication will have to be made until the new Treasurers' law based on Senate Bill 760 passed at the last session goes into effect in July 1959."

800 HUNTING BLINDS

Duck hunters planning to hunt on waterfowl management areas along the Mississippi and lower Illinois rivers this coming season will be privileged to draw for blind sites on nine areas, according to an order of the state Department of Conservation. The order covers hunting regulations on federally owned land from East Dubuque to Alton, on some department lands along the Illinois and DesPlaines rivers and at Grass Lake. Approximately 800 blind sites will be available on the nine areas.

Hunters who wish to participate in the drawing should apply by postcard or letter to the Department of Conservation, State Office Building, Springfield, Ill., between now and August 10.

Road Closed Too Long

Trevor residents are complaining about the condition of County Trunk C (Wilmot Road) which they say has been under construction too long and should have been finished. They say that to go to points east they have to come by way of Antioch or the long way around through Silver L. County Highway Commissioner Herzog said Monday that there is little he can do about the delay; that much of it was caused by wet weather. The improvement is a state project.

Pvt. R. Palm, Metalworking Grad
Pvt. Robert G. Palm, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Palm, Route 3, Antioch, Ill., was graduated July 26 from the eight-week metalworking course at the Army's Ordnance School, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

The course trained Palm to repair metal parts and equipment by forging and welding. He entered the Army in March of this year and received basic training at Fort Lewis, Wash.

The 22-year-old soldier was graduated from Antioch Township High School in 1952.

Before vaccination, dogs and cats should be freed from parasites and any faults in nutrition corrected with the advice of a veterinarian.

Kathleen Barkman Is Bride of R. Walther

White gladioli, white fujii mums, palms, and lighted white tapers in branched candelabras was the setting in which Miss Kathleen Evelyn Barkman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barkman of Fenton was wed to Robert Walther, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Walther of Chicago.

The double ring ceremony, conducted by the Reverend H. O. Zimmerman in the Fenton United Brethren Church, was held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, July 27. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Barkman was attired in a floor-length gown of imported Emil lace and nylon pleated tulle over satin, styled with a Sabrina neckline, edged in iridescent sequins, and a molded bodice of lace with self-covered buttons down the back. Her full lace skirt extended into a chapel train edged in a narrow ruffle of crystal pleated tulle, and her short fitted sleeves were complemented by white gloves. A double tiered fingertip veil was held by an imported Emil lace cap edged in pleated tulle. She carried an arrangement of white butterfly roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Verna Barkman was the maid of honor and Mrs. Gene Dye, Tulsa, Oklahoma; Mrs. Milton Davis, Chicago; Mrs. Jay Meiners, Ashton, Ill.; and Miss Ruth Vaughan, Freeport, Ill., were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length gowns of white nylon eyelet sheer over yellow taffeta with scoop necklines, molded bodices and cummerbunds of yellow taffeta. Their matching hats held short veils and were edged in seed pearls. Cascading arrangements of yellow and white pompons and roses were carried.

The groom's brother, Albert, served as best man, ushers were William Barkman, Calvin Schuneman, Prophetstown, Ill.; Robert Van Dyke, Davenport, Iowa; Charles Busse, Chicago; John Smith, Erie, Ill.; and William Baird, Antioch.

Eye Superstitions Have Lingered on Through Centuries

CHICAGO — Throughout history many have been prone to believe strange things about the eyes and some of these superstitions linger on today. In spite of all that radio, television, and the press are doing to spread scientific knowledge.

Stories of the evil eye are scattered through the folk-lore of most primitive peoples. Polish folk-lore tells us about a Slav who was sure he had it and blinded himself to protect his children. Sometimes whole nations have been so convinced of the power of the evil eye that laws have been passed to prevent the injury of crops by deadly looks.

The Neapolitans have always feared the evil eye, and even today they believe in it more strongly than any other group of people. But they think only men can be endowed with it. In modern Egypt, if a child is sickly-looking, the mother blames it on evil eye influence. In India the superstition is universal, and in Turkey and Arabia horses and camels are believed to be subject to the evil eye.

During the twelfth century the possessor of this dire power was visualized as a wizened old woman with a squint or one who had double pupils. Grimm's Fairy Tales says you can recognize a witch because if you look her in the eye you can see your image upside down, due to the evil characteristics of her eyes.

Research Needed In New Cosmetics

CHICAGO — As cosmetics leave the "realm of luxury" and become items of necessity, more and better research into the fundamental properties of the skin also becomes a necessity, according to a Federal Food and Drug Administration official.

Unfortunately, carefully controlled research into the fundamental principles of skin properties and mechanisms and the actions of various chemicals and drugs on skin has "not kept pace" with the many new products and the claims made on their behalf, he said.

Certain unobjectionable claims have been advanced for the effectiveness of certain preparations for reducing skin dryness and hiding skin blemishes and wrinkles.

However, in recent years, the trend has been to advertise such products as being more than just cosmetics — that they serve as "skin foods, rejuvenators or tonics," "Contour creams" for bust development or bust reducing, wrinkle eradicators, and "deep pore" cleaners.

"To date, however, no conclusive evidence has been offered in support of many of these claims," he said.

New Drug May Help In Radiation Cases

LOS ANGELES — Fatalities from radiation exposure may be significantly reduced by pre-administration of a new experimental drug from England, research at the University of California, Los Angeles, has shown.

The research, which has been carried out by Dr. Thomas Haley, Anna Flesher, R. Veomett, and J. Vincent of the Atomic Energy Project, has been concerned with a drug which carries the complex chemical name of Quinoxaline 1,4-Di-N-Oxide.

Untreated irradiated mice suffered 100 per cent mortality at the end of 16 days. Mice which had received injections of the new drug just prior to irradiation had only a 65 per cent mortality rate after 30 days. Postirradiation treatment with the drug reduced the mortality rate only slightly.

Part of the beneficial effects of the drug was related to reduction of intestinal bacteria, which multiply rapidly following radiation injury, causing acute bacteremia. Bacteremia is a major cause of death following radiation injury.

PHILADELPHIA — One-year-old Anne Michele Acosta likes to climb on chairs. One night her parents, Benjamin and Patricia Acosta, went to bed and forgot to remove a chair away from a window of their third floor apartment. Next morning, Anne Michele was found on the pavement under the windows.

Demonstrates Buoyancy of Common Canoe Even if Overturned

Robert Montour, director of first aid and water safety for the Lake County Chapter of the American Red Cross, is shown at the Antioch pool water show last Sunday afternoon conducting a small craft safety demonstration. Using a metal canoe, he demonstrated buoyancy capable of supporting the weight of the 12 young people shown and estimated that another 10 could be supported by the swamped boat as he advised the audience to remain with distressed crafts.

Health Talk

RELIEF IN HAY FEVER

Only persons who suffer from hay fever know the complete misery caused by this condition. The Educational Committee of the Illinois State Medical Society observes in Health Talk. The commonest form of allergy, hay fever, is characterized by symptoms similar to those of the common cold, but more intense. The respiratory tract and eyes are mostly affected, in such forms as swelling of the membrane lining of the nose, and throat, in many cases so severely that breathing is difficult. There is also sneezing and "sniffling" and similar irritation of and "weeping" from the eyes.

Allergy is a condition of the body in which it reacts unfavorably to contact with some substance which produced no trouble in non-allergic individuals. Hay fever patients are allergic to one or more of many plant pollens, usually grass or weeds. If the culprit is determined through a series of skin or "patch" tests, an attempt to desensitize the patient may be instituted by the doctor through repeated injections of the causative agent. This "immunity," however, is not an overnight procedure, but sometimes takes months, even years. A wise person will not delay until the season approaches, but will begin early and continue the injections at regular intervals until an immunity has been established.

There are some new drugs that have proved beneficial to some hay fever patients, particularly in patients with mild symptoms. These drugs are called anti-histamine drugs. That is, they are believed to combat the agent considered responsible for an allergic reaction in the human body. This agent is histamine, a chemical normally present in body tissue but which, through some abnormality or defect, renders some persons sensitive or allergic.

However, these drugs may produce unpleasant effects, such as nausea, vomiting, headaches, poor co-ordination and drowsiness. That is why users of these drugs must be under the careful supervision of a physician at all times. If these reactions show up in the driver of a car, for example, a traffic accident may result.

Aside from the use of drugs, victims can do some other things to help themselves. Financially able persons can go to an area where the pollen count is low. Some patients find it helpful to keep doors and windows closed to avoid drafts and breezes, causing the pollen to settle to the floor instead of floating through the air. Some mechani-

YESTERDAYS

Information taken from the August 18, 1932 Antioch News. You are there . . . .

The year is 1865. We are in Washington, D. C. with S. R. Ward. Ward, our able, genial host, has just announced that he has obtained theatre tickets for this evening. We are delighted and at about 8 p. m. we set out for Ford's theatre in expectation of a very enjoyable time.

Mr. Ward, born in Ceylon, India, in 1841, is soon to become Dr. Ward and will spend many useful, rewarding years practicing in Richmond, Ill. At the present time, he is studying at Georgetown University and is working in the United States Treasury department. He will be graduated from the University of Virginia and will come to Richmond in 1871. In 1932, his name will be submitted by the Antioch News to the Lincoln National Life Foundation as one of the oldest living witnesses of the event we are about to see with him.

Our seats, carefully chosen by Ward, are near the presidential box which is draped with stars and stripes. Mr. Ward explains that he learned from the morning paper that both the president and General Grant are to be present this evening. He has seen Mr. Lincoln a number of times; has even sat behind him on the speakers' platform at Gettysburg. But he has never seen Grant. We never having seen either of these great men, consider ourselves exceedingly fortunate to be able to see them together.

We settle in our seats and await their arrival. Presently, the president and Mrs. Lincoln arrive amid cheers and applause. We stand, and a feeling of awe and respect such as we have never known comes upon us as we watch the tall figure fold himself a little awkwardly into his chair. General Grant does not appear.

The lights dim and the curtain rises. The play goes on smoothly and then suddenly there is a revolver shot. We, absorbed in the action of the play, think it is a part of the plot. Startled by a scream, we look up to the presidential box to see Mrs. Lincoln on her feet, wringing her hands, and crying. The man who had fired the shot leaps to the stage, falling with one foot in the orchestra pit. He regains his balance, runs across the stage, down a hall and into an alley where he mounts a horse and gallops into the night.

Dazed and horrified, we hurry to the stage where we see them taking the dying president away.

Out on the street, still not believing what we have seen is true, we are asked if we know who fired. Almost too saddened to speak we reply that we do not. Then a bystander tells us, "It was John Wilkes Booth."

The year is 1913. We are in the Brook building on Lake street in the midst of a large group of men who are gathering together for the first time. H. G. Billett is presiding. Others in attendance are W. E. Volkman, George F. Conrad, Ernest Horton, Frank Palmer, Herman Wenke, William Dupre, Arthur Rosenfeldt, Ralph Fields, John L. Horan, F. S. Morrell, William E. Van Patten, L. Van Patten, Charles Kelly, William H. Daves, William Belton, E. L. Simons, William J. Christian, Joseph Fillweber, Ray Webb, George Garland, Chase McGuire, Edward S. Garrett, Joe Van Patten, S. E. Tarbell, Ben Drury, and William Keulman. We are at the first meeting of the Antioch Volunteer Fire Department.

YESTERDAYS

Information taken from the August 18, 1932 Antioch News. You are there . . .

The year is 1865. We are in Washington, D. C. with S. R. Ward. Ward, our able, genial host, has just announced that he has obtained theatre tickets for this evening. We are delighted and at about 8 p. m. we set out for Ford's theatre in expectation of a very enjoyable time.

Mr. Ward, born in Ceylon, India, in 1841, is soon to become Dr. Ward and will spend many useful, rewarding years practicing in Richmond, Ill. At the present time, he is studying at Georgetown University and is working in the United States Treasury department. He will be graduated from the University of Virginia and will come to Richmond in 1871. In 1932, his name will be submitted by the Antioch News to the Lincoln National Life Foundation as one of the oldest living witnesses of the event we are about to see with him.

Our seats, carefully chosen by Ward, are near the presidential box which is draped with stars and stripes. Mr. Ward explains that he learned from the morning paper that both the president and General Grant are to be present this evening. He has seen Mr. Lincoln a number of times; has even sat behind him on the speakers' platform at Gettysburg. But he has never seen Grant. We, never having seen either of these great men, consider ourselves exceedingly fortunate to be able to see them together.

We settle in our seats and await their arrival. Presently, the president and Mrs. Lincoln arrive amid cheers and applause. We stand, and a feeling of awe and respect such as we have never known comes upon us as we watch the tall figure fold himself a little awkwardly into his chair. General Grant does not appear.

The lights dim and the curtain rises. The play goes on smoothly and then suddenly there is a revolver shot. We, absorbed in the action of the play, think it is a part of the plot. Startled by a scream, we look up to the presidential box to see Mrs. Lincoln on her feet, wringing her hands, and crying. The man who had fired the shot leaps to the stage, falling with one foot in the orchestra pit. He regains his balance, runs across the stage, down a hall and into an alley where he mounts a horse and gallops into the night.

Dazed and horrified, we hurry to the stage where we see them taking the dying president away.

Out on the street, still not believing what we have seen is true, we are asked if we know who fired. Almost too saddened to speak we reply that we do not. Then a bystander tells us, "It was John Wilkes Booth."

The year is 1913. We are in the Brook building on Lake street in the midst of a large group of men who are gathering together for the first time. H. G. Billett is presiding. Others in attendance are W. E. Volkman, George F. Conrad, Ernest Horton, Frank Palmer, Herman Wenke, William Dupre, Arthur Rosenfeldt, Ralph Fields, John L. Horan, F. S. Morrell, William E. Van Patten, L. Van Patten, Charles Kelly, William H. Daves, William Betton, E. L. Simons, William J. Christian, Joseph Fillweber, Ray Webb, George Garland, Chase McGuire, Edward S. Garrett, Joe Van Patten, S. E. Tarbell, Ben Drury, and William Keulman. We are at the first meeting of the Antioch Volunteer Fire Department.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank Father Johnson, the Antioch Rescue Squad, and all the people who visited me, made inquiries and sent gifts, cards and flowers during my hospital stay and convalescence at home.

Reunion of Nurses Held Marquette Class of '22

Mrs. Oscar I. Onstad of Lake Catherine entertained at her home Monday some of the women who had received degrees in 1922 from the school of nursing of Marquette University. A picnic lunch was served by the hostess and the afternoon was spent in reviewing the 35 years since graduation. It was reported that all of the 18 women upon whom Degrees were conferred by the Rev. Herbert C. Noonan S. J. are living and well. The group had gathered at the Onstad home five years ago.

Many incidents of their college years were recalled. Honored in their Junior year were Adelaida Mayer, now Mrs. George Werner of Kenosha, who was crowned queen of the prom, at which Wisconsin Gov. John T. Blaine and his wife led the formal promenade, and Dorothy Cooper, now Mrs. Onstad who was chosen as the feminine lead in the University play, "Officer 666", which was presented at Milwaukee's Pabst Theatre.

Minister's Son Baptized

Too Many Tag Days

"There are too many Tag Days," Mayor Murrill Cunningham told the village trustees at Tuesday night's meeting, "and something's got to be done about it."

Cunningham said that scarcely a week goes by but what somebody is begging on the street.

"A request is made for the following year before this year's Tag Day is held," he complained.

The grade school band Tag Day came in for criticism as did those organizations who seek two days instead of one.

Dates For Registration Of New Students at Antioch High Listed

High school students new to the Antioch community and who plan to attend Antioch Township High School in the fall are asked by school officials to register at the high school office Monday, August 19, through Friday, Aug. 23. Hours will be 9 a. m. to 12, and 1 to 4 p. m. daily plus 7 to 9 p. m. on Thursday evening.

Tests for incoming freshmen who were not tested last spring and transferring sophomores and juniors will be administered beginning at 9 a. m. on Tuesday, Aug. 20. It is important that new students be tested before school opens September 4, otherwise they may be as much as five days late in receiving their class schedules, school officials said.

Any high school student who has not registered can do so on the specified dates to avoid delay during the opening days of school.

Students already registered but who wish to make program changes should do so not later than Friday, Aug. 23. They should be accompanied by a parent or bring written permission for any changes.

Mrs. Mary L. Sheahan, 74 Dies; Bristol Resident

Mrs. Mary L. Sheahan, 74 years of age, a resident of Bristol, Wis., for 20 years, passed away Wednesday evening, Aug. 7, in the Burlington hospital. She had been ill for two months.

Prepare to Construct Oakland Grade School

Although his signed contract is not yet in the hands of the Antioch District 37 Grade School officials, Roy Nordstrom, Fox Lake general contractor, mowed the weeds and set stakes Tuesday in preparation for erecting the new Oakland Grade School at Loon Lake and Deep Lake roads.

The conclusion is that he intends to sign and will break ground next week. None of the other contractors have returned their signed contract, but the school officials expect them next week.

Rescue Squad Beats Stork
The Antioch Rescue squad rushed Mrs. Mary Ruggles from the home of her mother, Mrs. Victor Bown of Antioch to Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan at 7:15 a. m. Sunday none to soon before the birth of a daughter. Mother and daughter are doing nicely.

Janice Kiehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Kiehl, Naber Subdivision, Antioch, recently completed a summer course in dental assisting at Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis. This year 33 girls from Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan enrolled in the summer program for high school graduates.

Classmates of the Marquette University School of Nursing

Three hundred adults and children of the Antioch Loyal Order of Moose picnicked at Fox River Grove near Cary Sunday. They went in a caravan of 15 automobiles.

The children were given books of tickets providing free rides on the park attractions by Morris Verkest, governor of the lodge. Many dozens of eggs were used in the egg throwing contest. The horse shoe contest was won by John Bemis and Lester Nelson. Charles Meierdick received a television award.

Two New Firemen

John Christensen and Don Irving are two new members of the Antioch Fire department.

Abbott Laboratories Earnings Up 16 Pct. Sales Up 9 Percent

Earnings of the pharmaceutical company Abbott Laboratories in the first six months of 1957 were 16 per cent ahead of the corresponding period in 1956. Sales were up 9 per cent.

Earnings for the first half of 1957 were $5,110,000—equivalent to $1.32 per common share—as compared with $4,413,000—or $1.13 per share—during the first six months of 1956. Sales for 1957 were $51,448,000 compared with $47,158,000 in the first six months of 1956.

Sales and earnings for 1956 were restated in the Abbott report to reflect consolidation of foreign and domestic business on a comparable basis.

The sales gain reflected improvement throughout the product line and was not attributable to any single product or group of products. Increases occurred in the foreign operation as well as the domestic.

In addition to increase sales volume greater stability of certain foreign currencies was a factor in the improved earnings.

Caught Rifling Automobiles

George Rox, proprietor of Sherwood Park, Lake Villa, climbed a tree and spotted some teen-age youths rifling cars. Then he turned them over to Deputy Sheriff Paul Lewis and today, one of the boys, Dennis F. Bell of Crooked Lake, is in county jail charged with burglary. Two others admitted thefts and will be dealt with. Another pair of brothers admitted taking two wallets, one containing $70 and the other $10. And the investigation continues.

Despite Delay.....

as a matter of privacy. The improvement is to cost less than $400. Clerk Shults was authorized to get a new chair and some files for his office and to purchase new flags for the village hall and fire station.

At the suggestion of Atty. Ed. Jacobs the president of the board will get a new gavel to save his knuckles in pounding for order.

Dog License Again Studied

Mayor Cunningham appointed Trustees Holbek, Bernard Osmond, and Edmund F. Vos as a committee to study the dog ordinance recently tabled, and make it presentable for passage at the next meeting.

An ordinance preventing women attending bar unless they are part owners of the tavern will be drawn up.

"We should have that law before the problem confronts us," said Cunningham.

Trustee Osmond said that he has two proposals for bidders on the removal of surface water from the Park ave. area but that he wants to study them before presenting them to the board. One called for alternates of 6 and 8-inch tile and the other 8 and 10-inch tile. The board will insist on at least an 8-inch tile.

Grading of First st. is completed, Street Supt. Emil R. Ehnert reported and must be left three weeks to settle before coating. Winsor drive is ready for a seal coat but must await other jobs of this type. Ehnert said the village snow plow is in bad condition.

Trustees Vos and E. H. Glenn were appointed as a committee to provide for mosquito spraying whenever needed.
